California Dream Living and so much more!

The Inside Story

Almost two years ago interior designer Gioi Tran of Applegate Tran Interiors approached us with the concept for Dream Living. The idea was to explore the way the California lifestyle impacts how we use our homes.

A team was assembled starting with Better Building Systems (BBS) from Grass Valley. BBS provides a variety of environmentally friendly building systems for home construction, statewide. In our first meeting BBS brought the idea of not only looking at how we as Californians use our home but what we can do to reduce the strain on our limited natural resources and create a healthier home. The question became can we build a display that would highlight both concepts. How do we use our living space and can we do it "green"?

The R-Control structural insulated panels (SIP's) that BBS would provide were a "green" product but what about the components? We would need cabinets, appliances, windows, bathroom fixtures, flooring, paint and wall finishes.

The cabinets were going to be a huge component of the display but how do we make the cabinets "green"? We turned to Artisan Custom Cabinets' craftsmen. They already understood the need for environmentally friendly construction methods. The exquisite cabinets you'll see in the Dream Living displays were constructed using lumber harvested from forests certified by the Forest Stewardship Council (FSC). The glues used are formaldehyde free. And, the paints and stains selected have the lowest possible VOC's (volatile organic compounds) levels.

Anderson's Renewal windows were a natural choice. They are the first and only Green Seal Certified window manufacturer. Hall's Window Center provided and installed this earth friendly choice.

Capital Wholesale Electric brought a variety of appliance manufactures together. The Miele dishwasher and oven are an excellent example of the energy efficiency of today appliances.

Kohler Co. provided the very latest in kitchen and bathroom fixtures. Even here you will find environmentally friendly innovation. The new Escalate model toilet has two separate flushing actions that will save 5,000 gallons of water a year for the typical family of four.

The Dream Living display brought together the many talents of our exhibitors. Granite Transformations designed and installed all of our countertops. Heavylux worked with our landscaper Pond Pro to create one of the knockout features of the displays, the master bathroom shower.

Look at the wall finishes of the displays. Three different companies created the finished look of our displays. Golden Restoration & Construction, Inc. has created a waterproof exterior finish for both displays. Inside, Tobias Stucco used their interior stucco product in the Master Bedroom Suite with wonderful results. We called on the artistry of Trudi McCullough of Wall Mysteries to complete the interior finish of the Great Room and the master bathroom shower. Best of all, all of our finishing inside and out are environmentally friendly.

Even with all that we were putting into our display it would never have looked complete or as beautiful without the help of Crate & Barrel. Their Roseville Galleria store brought truckloads of their furniture and accessories to really complete the Dream Living environment.

Please enjoy the results of all of our Sponsors' efforts. They did an outstanding job illustrating just how beautiful a "green", environmentally safe home, can be.

The Outside Story

As Californians, we live a good portion of the year enjoying our outdoor spaces. The beautiful gardens that surround the Dream Living Pavilions were created to highlight six different outdoor environments.

Ahrens Landscape, who was the winners of the 2006 California State Home & Garden Show landscape competition, was selected to provide the entry garden. Their garden design expands the definition of a front yard into a useable living space.

You'll find a Kid Friendly backyard created by TuffGrass. The exquisite Oriental Garden from Pond Pro provides an unbelievable backdrop for our master bathroom shower. The heart of outdoor living, many times, centers around the bar-b-queue and outdoor dining. TrueGreen Landcare has teamed up with Outdoor Kitchen Concepts to provide the ultimate in an outdoor dining experience. Lawnman Commercial Landscape's Master Bedroom Suite garden provides a setting for relaxation. EverGreen Landscape took our environmentally friendly theme to heart when creating their garden.

Enjoy all of our gardens and please consider these true craftsmen for your next landscape project.
